

The Accelerated Learning Program at the Community College of Baltimore County

Peter Adams began the ALP program at CCBC in the 90's. Students placing one level below English Composition are mainstreamed into composition but, at the same time, are enrolled into the developmental writing course. Today, the program has scaled up to over 200 sections at this 5 campus community college. The link provided explains the program, the process and the very positive data.

<http://alp-deved.org/powerpoint-on-alp/>