WELCOME, SUCCESS CENTER UPDATES, & OVERVIEW OF AGENDA

Laura Rittner, Executive Director, Success Center, Ohio Association of Community Colleges

Over the past four years, Ohio community colleges have been committed to scaling guided pathways reforms through participation in the Student Success Leadership Institutes (SSLI). As we continue this journey, learn about several exciting new Success Center opportunities to dive deeper into this work, with new funding to focus on equity, faculty professional development and engaging adult learners. Teams will also have the opportunity to share out reflections and next steps from the Pre-SSLI Equity Institute with Achieving the Dream.

10:00 AM – 10:15 AM

Grand Ballroom

OHIO CAMPUS COMPLETION PLANS UPDATE

INNOVATIVE GUIDED PATHWAYS PRACTICES IN ACTION: PILLARS 1 & 2

USING EMPLOYER COMPRESSION PLANNING SESSIONS TO DRIVE PROGRAM REFORMS

April Carpenter, Professor of Management, Marketing & Entrepreneurship, Sinclair Community College & Jennifer Kostic, Associate Provost, Sinclair Community College

As educators, we are constantly looking to identify relevant data from employers on what exactly makes up the "skills gap" we hear so much about. This talk will explore how Sinclair has used employer compression planning sessions to gather data effectively and efficiently and update courses/programs to align with employer needs.

EMBEDDING HOPE INTO A FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE COURSE

Elizabeth Kline, Dean, Student Success and Engagement and Chief Student Affairs Officer, Zane State College

Building hope in students gives them the tools they need to succeed in college level courses including developing purpose, choosing a path, setting goals and managing obstacles. This talk will share practical, useful tools to build hope in students based on real data that shows real results.
