MAXIMIZING RETURN ON INVESTMENT FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGE EDUCATION

Calista H. Smith, President, Scale Strategic Solutions; Kanler Cumbass, Associate, Education Strategy Group

Scale Strategic Solutions and Education Strategy Group produced a landscape analysis regarding the value and affordability of education and training beyond high school in Ohio.

The analysis focuses on these framing questions:

- What factors impact the affordability of education and training after high school?
- How do economic returns vary for pursuing education and training beyond high school?
- How and where can Ohio’s public institutions improve economic upward mobility for all Ohioans?
- What policy and practice solutions are available for Ohio to ensure the affordability and value of postsecondary education and training?

This session will be a chance to explore the analysis and recommendations from the perspective of Ohio community colleges.

OHIO COMMUNITY COLLEGE FUNDING CONSULTATION GROUP: TACKLING OHIO’S WORKFORCE CHALLENGES

Martha Snyder, Partner, HCM Strategists; Stephanie Murphy, Director of State Policy & Research, HCM Strategists; Kelly Weir, Associate Vice President, Resource Planning and Analysis, Columbus State Community College; Jeff Boudouris, Chief Financial Strategy Officer, OACC

Recognizing the need for more systematic collection statewide of short-term credential data, especially noncredit data, the Ohio Legislature passed House Bill 33 in 2023. Among other things, the bill charges the state’s public postsecondary institutions to conduct a study on the types of data to be included in the Higher Education Information (HEI) System, focusing particularly on workforce credentials and short-term certificates. To accomplish this, OACC and ODHE have established a Consultation Group, supported by HCM Strategists, to develop recommendations around short-term credential data collection with the goal of using the data for funding and case making. This session will review the work the consultation group has carried out thus far, including lessons learned from other states, the vision and objectives that have been instrumental in framing the priorities for potential data metrics, and an outline of the next steps.
TRACKING TRANSFER IN OHIO: COMMUNITY COLLEGE AND FOUR-YEAR INSTITUTIONAL EFFECTIVENESS IN BROADENING BACHELOR’S DEGREE ATTAINMENT

Tatiana Velasco, Research Associate, Community College Research Center; John Fink, Senior Research Associate and Program Lead, Community College Research Center

In this session, CCRC researchers will share national and Ohio-specific takeaways from two recent “Tracking Transfer” reports describing disparities and opportunities for transforming community college transfer pathways, including new measures of four-year institutional performance serving low-income, older adults, and transfer students of color. Presenters will describe emerging findings from recent visits to transfer partnerships with particularly strong outcomes for low-income and students of color, equipping and inspiring leaders to further strengthen transfer outcomes, including starting students’ transfer pathway in high school with CCP.

WHAT MATTERS MOST IN WORKFORCE PROGRAMS

Doreen Larson, retired President of Edison State Community College

Expectations are high regarding Ohio’s Community Colleges’ ability to fill the workforce pipeline with qualified employees. Regardless of the industry, there are key components of workforce programs that must be addressed to attract, retain, and graduate students who will experience career success. This presentation will outline critical components of quality workforce programs using a hypothetical “Chip Industry” program template.
